BATTLE GOING ON IN PRISON

Prisoners Mysteriously Supplied With Arms Break From State Penitentiary and Are Terrorizing Entire Region.
Two Outbreaks Within Twenty-four Hours.

Rawlins, Wyo., Oct. 14.—A battle is raging in the state penitentiary here.
Locked inside the walls with hundreds of mutinous prisoners a few guards are fighting desperately to restore order and prevent a wholesale jail delivery.

Camped outside the walls is a force of citizens, heavily armed, ready to drive back the convicts if they murder the remaining guards and rush through the gates. Shouts and occasional shots tell the story of desperate fighting within the walls, and it is rumored that several guards and convicts have been killed.

Another battle is in progress in the hills south of Rawlins between a posse of citizens and from twenty to forty escaped prisoners. Two men have been killed in the streets of Rawlins, one is desperately wounded and two convicts have been recaptured, following the escape of from ten to thirty prisoners.

The town is in panic. Frantic telegrams have been sent to Governor Carey, now in Sheridan, imploring him to send state troops to protect the citizens. Townspeople are barricaded in their homes, or, heavily armed, are patrolling the streets guarding their own homes and the houses of those engaged in the man hunt in the hills, or in the vigil before the prison.

Second Outbreak in Few Hours.

The outbreak was the second within twenty-four hours. Twenty prisoners escaped previously and nine were recaptured several hours later. At 2:30 p. m. a party of desperate life termers overpowered the cellhouse keeper, took his keys and released their comrades from their cells. Every prisoner willing to risk a battle with the guards made a rush for the gates.

A moment later the citizens of the town heard a fusillade of shots inside the walls. A bedlam of shouts and yells echoed from the prison. A few seconds later more than a dozen men dashed down the main street, armed with guns and knives. Holding the few citizens on the street at bay with revolvers, they charged into a lively barn, holding up the proprietor, hastily throwing saddles and bridles on the horses.

One of the convicts, a big negro, with a revolver, was left as guard on the outside. Charles Strenner, a barber, had heard the commotion and came down the street with a shotgun.
The negro shot him through the head, killing him instantly.

At the sound of the shot the convicts swarmed from the barn, some with stolen horses and some afoot.
A Mexican wantedly stabbed the proprietor in the face, severely wounding him, and a few seconds later paid for the deed with his life. Hugh Rogers, a deputy sheriff, shot and killed him.

Make Dash for Hills.

Leaving their dead comrade, the convicts made a dash for the hills south of town. A party of penitentiary guards followed in close pursuit, and before the bewildered citizens had had time to form a posse, pursuers and fugitives had disappeared in the hills.

In a short time posses had been formed and one of the most desperate man hunts in the history of the West was on. The convicts scattered into small groups.

Just before nightfall six convicts were located in a canyon about a mile south of Rawlins. Twenty deputies, each armed with two revolvers and a repeating rifle, were sent to capture or kill them.

In the meantime a search of the town was made. One convict was found hiding in a garbouse in the railroad yards. Citizens overpowered the guards who were taking him, heavily fired, back to the penitentiary, but the arrival of more guards prevented a lynching. The man was hustled into the prison. Some time later another convict was captured in a cellar.

Persons coming into town from the south bring stories of a reign of terror in the country districts. Riders have been sent to the ranches for a radius of several miles, warning the owners to be prepared to defend their property. Several parties who went south on horseback, or in carriages, returned afoot, their horses having been stolen by the convicts.

The escapes appear to be the result of a general plot inside the prison.

It is not known how the prisoners who made their break for liberty got a guns, with which they were supplied when they dashed from the gates. It is possible the local officers believe, that they killed a number of guards after overpowering the cell-house keeper, and took their weapons.
Another theory is that the guns were smuggled into the prison by friends of the men who had previously escaped.

ATTITUDE IS EXASPERATINGAggressiveness of Turkey Not Conducive to Settlement.

TAKE HORSES OF FOREIGNERS

Government Determined to Expel All Bulgarian and Greek Subjects From Country as Soon as War Is Declared.
Assessing All Refugees a Year's Taxes.

Constantinople, Oct. 14.—Whether for the purpose of furnishing provocation for war or to show the Balkan allies that Turkey cannot be intimidated, the government is acting with an aggressiveness calculated to bring on hostilities. The embargo on Greek ships, the detention of Serbian ammunition, and the seizure of Bulgarian railway cars, all constitute belligerent acts.

Greek and Bulgarian nationals in Constantinople, numbering a thousand or more, have been subjected to treatment designed to irritate these two nations. Financial considerations figure largely in the attitude of the Turkish government, and practically all of the many hundreds of Greeks who are returning to Athens are compelled to pay full taxes to the end of the year before they are permitted to embark. Even the crews of Greek ships which are seized have been banned before the prefects and made to pay a year's taxes, as though they were Turkish subjects. Many Greeks have been arrested on the charge of being deserting reservists and they can procure their release only by paying the military exemption tax.

Turkey's action, however, is less arbitrary than would seem, because numbers of the Greeks hold both Hellenic and Turkish passports to obtain the advantage of both nationalities and they now have to shoulder the responsibilities of both.

Will Expel Subjects.

The government is determined to expel all Bulgarian and Greek subjects as soon as war is declared, and these will be transported by some of the steamers which have been detained for that purpose. Trouble is probable over the seizures, as most of the cargoes are foreign owned, although the vessels flew the Greek flag and the owners will claim damages.

The government is requisitioning the horses owned by foreign residents, except diplomatic representatives. The various embassies have protested and notified the porte that compensation will be claimed. Several Turkish women are going to the front to attend the wounded. This will mark the beginning of a new era for the sex.

A consular telegram reports the killing of twelve Bulgarians at Ku-prili, in Macedonia, by Turkish soldiers.

A dispatch from Scutari reports that the Montenegrins have burned the Muslim village of Kranja, several children perishing in the flames. The fighting in that neighborhood is visible from Scutari.

Severe fighting has occurred at Tushi, where the Turks are displaying great bravery. It is further reported that the Turkish forces in the country between Lake Scutari and the sea have stopped the advance of the Montenegrins.

UNFIT TO FIGHT; SUICIDES

Macedonian Officer Couldn't Stand Staying Home.

London, Oct. 14.—A Podgoritz dispatch to the Daily Mail says the town of Schierik has been practically demolished by the Montenegrin guns, and that 230 Turks have been taken prisoners. A blockhouse at Ararazi also has been leveled.

Describing the capture of Detchitch mountain, a correspondent at the front says the final charge of the Montenegrins was so furious that the retreating Turks had no time to disable their guns, and they were actually fired at with their own guns by the Montenegrins as they endeavored to make their escape to the south.

The noted Macedonian leader, Todor Lazaroff, committed suicide Friday, says a Sofia dispatch, because the military doctors refused to allow him in the army on account of the fact that he was suffering from tuberculosis. He left a letter saying he could not remain behind to die in bed while his brothers were fighting for liberty.

The incident has acted as a spur to patriotism. The body is lying in state in the ancient Church of St. George, where great crowds have been viewing it.

For Use in Air or on Water.

Washington, Oct. 14.—The war department has ordered one of the new Curtis aerobots for the use of the hydro-aeroplane school here. The new machine is a combination of aero-plane and speedy motorboat. The bottom planes of the machine rest directly across the gunwales of the hy-droplane.

JAMES TAWNEY.

Former Congressman Says
President Is Gaining Ground.

SAYS TAIT IS GAINING FAST

Tawney Declares Other Candidates Are Losing Ground.

Winona, Minn., Oct. 14.—James A.
Tawney has returned to Winona from the regular sessions of the International Joint commission at Ottawa.

"During my trip I paid little attention to politics," said Mr. Tawney, "but nevertheless I came in contact with a great many men connected with the campaign, and their universal opinion is that sentiment in favor of Taft is growing very rapidly among Republicans and Democrats. Neither Wilson nor Roosevelt are as strong today as they were a month ago in the East."

THREE INJURED BY AUTOS; ONE MAY DIETwo of Victims Were Playing in Street When Hit.

St. Paul, Oct. 14.—Three casualties, one of which it is feared will be fatal, resulted from automobile accidents yesterday. Two of the victims are six-year-old boys, the third is fifteen years old. In each case those hurt were on foot.

Thomas Wilson, the young son of T. J. Wilson, was knocked down and run over at Cedar and Summit by a machine driven by Frank D. Snider, chauffeur for H. T. Quilan. The car is said to have been going at a speed of about eighteen miles an hour on Cedar street, when it approached the spot where the boy was playing in the street with a group of children.

Dennis McDonald, six years old, suffered a fractured leg and severe bruises when struck by an automobile driven by John D. O'Brien, when he ran into the street at Summit avenue and Rice street. The boy was playing with several companions and apparently did not see the car approach.
Attorney O'Brien attempted to stop, but did not see the boy quickly enough.

The third victim was Otto Malmstead, fifteen years old, who was struck by the fender of a car as he passed him on Seventh street. The car struck him in the leg, lacerating it badly.

GOLD FIND CAUSES STAMPEDE

British Columbia Towns Deserted
When News Is Received.

Prince Rupert, B. C., Oct. 14.—Free milling gold, said to assay thousands of dollars to the ton was discovered by two prospectors, McLaren and Bel-way, twenty-six miles from Kit-skatum, at Marion Point. The towns of Kitiskatum and Terrace are deserted. Fifty claims have been staked and, according to reports received here, hundreds of prospectors, storekeepers, lawyers, doctors and miners are on their way to the find. Kit-skatum is ninety miles up the railroad from here.

Masonic Conference Ends.

Washington, Oct. 14.—The second international conference of Scottish Rite Masons, which has been in session here several days, adjourned Saturday after a short business session. At the final meeting it was decided that the third international conference will be held at Lausanne, Switzerland, in May, 1917.

Greeks Leave Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, Oct. 14.—With cheers from friends and a blessing from Rev.
Averkos Demacopoulos, pastor of St.
Mary's Greek church, sixty Greek residents left Minneapolis in response to a call from their government, issued Oct. 7. Following the Greek custom the men kissed their kinsmen farewell and as the Great Northern train for Chicago pulled out of the station, hundreds of Greeks cheered their departing countrymen, wishing them Godspeed and success in the prespec-tive conflict with the Turks.

AS TO POLITICAL CONTRIBUTIONSNot Believed Presidents Are Influenced by Them.

THE INQUIRY IS SENSATIONAL.

A Similar Probe Eighteen Years Ago.
Story of Jay Gould and the Erie-Is Sulzer Following In Cleveland's Footsteps?—William Loeb Still Loyal to the Colonel.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Oct. 14.—[Special.]— "What's the use?" asks the average man of common sense when he considers this campaign fund investigation.
No one believes that either Mr. Roosevelt or Mr. Taft has ever been influenced in his actions on public questions by reason of campaign funds contributed by corporations or individuals.
No one believes that any of the presidential candidates will be influenced in the future by such contributions.

So the present investigation amounts to little more than froth, with occasionally a little sensation to season it. Of course it was interesting to have men like Roosevelt and Pierpont Morgan put on the stand and grilled by members of the committee. It was exciting to hear Senator Dixon pitch into his opponents, but it did not hurt the dignity of the United States senators and taken as a whole, the investigation is almost ridiculous.

A Look Backward.

Eighteen years ago the United States senate had an investigation to purge itself of the charges of bribery in connection with the sugar schedule of the Wilson bill. Then it was charged that because the sugar trust had contributed to the campaign fund which elected Cleveland the Democratic party was bound to write a sugar schedule which the trust demanded. After weeks of investigation nothing was developed of much consequence.

The Haverneys testified that they contributed to both campaign funds.
It recalled the statement of the elder Gould who when president of the Erie railroad was before a New York legislative committee. He said he contributed to both campaign funds.

"I am a Republican in Republican countries," said Gould, "a Democrat in Democratic countries and an Erie man all the time."

"In His Footsteps."

Grover Cleveland was born in New Jersey. He went to New York state.
He became an officeholder in New York. He became governor of New York. He became president of the United States.

William Sulzer was born in New Jersey. He went to New York. He became an officeholder in New York.
He became—well, for the sake of the story, let us say he became governor of New York. It is yet too early to make any other predictions. But it looks as if Sulzer is following in the footsteps of the illustrious Cleveland.

The Faithful Loeb.

Was it not a strange sight to see the man who holds the best federal office in the United States as the appointee of President Taft coaching and aiding on the witness stand the most intense enemy of Taft in the present campaign? But such a man is William Loeb, collector of the port of New York.

No man has ever stood closer to another man than Loeb to Roosevelt. No man admires another more than Loeb does Roosevelt. Whatever else they may say of the colonel, he has the faculty of making close and loyal friends, and those who know him best like him best.

Seems Good to Gore.

Senator Gore of Oklahoma was one of the first men in the senate to join the Wilson forces. He was not disturbed when Colonel Watterson and George Harvey found it necessary to get on the other side. Nor did he flinch when several senate Democrats like Bailey espoused other candidates.
Gore is a blind man, but political sight is not a physical attribute. The real political sightseer feels his way into the future. Gore saw Wilson's nomination and has been absolutely confident of his election. And that is what he told people when he was in Washington recently.

The Wandering Cabinet.

It is a happy omen that we do not pay much attention to the whereabouts of the cabinet officers. All summer they wander up and down the face of the earth, but aside from the mere mention that they have been seen in certain places there is not the slightest interest in their movements.

Some years Knox is in Central or South America, some years in Japan.
Secretary Fisher is occasionally reported in the Philippines, Alaska, Hawaii or some part of our own country. Announcements are made from time to time that Postmaster General Hitchcock has just returned from or is just going to New York.

These announcements are kept ready for almost daily use. Secretary Stimson may be found almost anywhere that federal troops are located, which gives him a wide range. I might go on and tell about others, but there are instances enough to show that the cabinet officers are "on the move."

Fidelity in little things is the indispensable training for greater usefulness.

STEEL COMPANIES RUSHED

Balkan War Draws Thousands of Workmen.

New York, Oct. 14.—Stimulated by the pressure for deliveries on steel contracts, a growing tonnage of unfilled orders and extremely favorable weather for plant operations, the steel companies are counting on breaking all production records for crude and unfinished steel this month. To do this it is necessary for the United States Steel corporation to turn out nearly 1,525,000 tons and other steel companies to produce nearly 500,000 tons of steel ingots. The one great drawback is the difficulty of getting and holding labor. The war in the Balkans already has drawn thousands of foreigners back to Europe.

NAVAL OFFICER IS
DROWNED IN HUDSONEnsign Butler Loses Life While Returning to Vessel.

New York, Oct. 14.—Ensign Andrew Butler, U. S. N., was drowned in the Hudson river while returning with three fellow officers to his post on the battleship Rhode Island in the line of the great Atlantic armada at anchor here for presidential review. In another accident on the river six sailors from the battleship Maine rescued eleven persons from drowning.

Ensign Butler and his party had spent the night in the city and were on the way back to the ship in a small private launch. When fifty feet from the battleship young Butler was seen to step out from beneath the canopy and fall into the water. It is believed he thought mistakenly that the launch had a sort of running board outside the canopy, as naval launches have, and that he intended to step on this to make preparations for the landing.

One of his companions dived for him, but was unable to reach him and was rescued with difficulty.

Butler was twenty-three years old.
He was appointed to Annapolis from Louisiana and he was graduated last year.

The rescue in which the sailors from the battleship Maine figured as heroes occurred when a small launch in which Bernard Bauer and his family and friends were visiting the ship was cut squarely in two by the sharp bows of the bigger steam launch Vixen, and the occupants of the small craft, including seven men and four women, were thrown into the river. The little launch foundered almost immediately.
All on board were rescued.

BULGARIA MAKES A REPLY

Says Clause Is Not Clear and Asks Powers for Explanation.

Sofia, Oct. 14.—Bulgaria's reply to the Russo-Austrian note was presented to the diplomatic representatives.
This note and one addressed to Turkey are couched in moderate terms.
The Bulgarian government says that it is most anxious to do nothing that will aggravate the present precarious situation, and is desirous of leaving open every avenue for the maintenance of peace until the last possible moment.

The reply points out that the wording of one of the most important clauses of the powers' note is not clear and, as Bulgaria is anxious to avoid all misunderstanding, asks the powers to state precisely what the doubtful clause really means.

Eight Won't Vote for Taft.

Oklahoma City, Oct. 14.—Eight of the Republican electors in Oklahoma have publicly denied being for Taft, although the Republican national committee claims the entire Oklahoma electoral ticket with two exceptions.
Of the ten candidates for electors on the Republican ticket, W. L. McWilliams of Miami is for Taft, but he has said he will vote for Roosevelt rather than for Wilson. G. M. Flick of Oklahoma City says he is personally for Taft, but intends to vote with the majority.

Temperature in Northwest.

Washington, Oct. 14.—The weekly bulletin of the weather bureau says a disturbance of moderate intensity, attended by local areas of precipitation, will develop over the Far West Tuesday or Wednesday, cross the Middle West about Thursday and the Eastern states Friday.

"Seasonable temperatures will prevail throughout the country until after the passage of this disturbance, when a change to considerably lower temperatures is probable over much of the country. This change to colder will appear in the Northwest Wednesday or Thursday."

SUPREME COURT RECONVENES

First of Governmental Departments to Get Into Action.

Washington, Oct. 14.—The supreme court of the United States has begun its annual eight-month term, being the first of the governmental machines to resume activity this fall. All members of the court are in the city, asking an exception to the general rule of late years, when at least one seat on the bench has been vacant when court convened.

Absence of President Taft from the city resulted in a postponement of the outstanding visit of the justices of the White House.

REBELS KIDNAP AMERICAN

Mexican Insurrectos Take Stockbroker
From Train.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 14.—Rebels held up a passenger train 150 miles south of this point on the border, rifled the mail and express cars and kidnapped John T. Cameron, a wealthy stockbroker of El Paso. The train was allowed to proceed south.

Cameron was on his way to purchase cattle to be imported into the United States. It is believed he is held either for ransom or to prevent further stock shipments from the districts held by rebels.

Georgia Strike Settled.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 14.—An agreement has been reached between the Atlanta Joint Terminal company and representatives of the striking employes practically settling the strike on the Georgia railroad and Atlanta terminals. Terms for arbitration will be decided at a meeting and it is announced that train service will be resumed immediately on the Georgia road.

Woman Killed by Auto.

Lancaster, O., Oct. 14.—Mrs. Margaret Clouse, seventy-seven years old, was killed instantly, and her daughter, Josephine Clouse, and Harry Green, all of Somerset, O., were probably fatally injured when an automobile in which they were riding was struck by a traction car at Carroll, a village near here.

Felix Diaz in Open Revolt.

ing that Felix Diaz, nephew of Porfirio Diaz, erstwhile president of Mexico, is in open revolt against the Madero government and has gone to Oaxaca state to head a new revolutionary army.

Hilles Plans an Appeal to Men of Business World.

SAYS PROSPECTS ARE GOOD

Republican Chairman Will Finish Campaign as Did His Predecessor in 1908—Will Predict Calamity in Election of Wilson or Roosevelt.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Information received in Washington is that Chairman Hilles of the Republican national committee has completed plans to make a whirlwind finish of this campaign in the interest of President Taft. An effort is being made to rouse business men, and at the same time Republicans at various points throughout the country are to give out interviews painting the Taft prospects a rosy hue.

Emphasis is to be laid on the prosperity issue and predictions are to be made that the election of either Colonel Roosevelt or Governor Wilson would tend to depress business conditions and throw thousands out of employment.

For three weeks the Republican managers have been bearing down hard on prosperity as an issue. In a series of interviews made public about ten days ago, President Taft discussed prosperity as the paramount issue, declaring that the election of Governor Wilson would result in the passage of free trade bills.

The president's lead is to be followed by lesser lights, and Chairman Hilles and his associates are hopeful of arousing apathetic Republican workers. Chairman Hilles is pursuing the style of campaign this year that was adopted by his predecessor, Chairman Hitchcock, in 1908. Four years ago the Republican leaders held most of their ammunition until

PREACHES HIS FAREWELL SERMON

Large Audiences Hear Rev. Charles Fox Davis Sunday Morning and Evening

UNION MEETING IN THE EVENING

Every Chair Taken and People Standing in Aisles at First Congregational Church

Sunday morning and evening Rev. Charles Fox Davis, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, preached his farewell sermons to large audiences. In the morning he spoke at his church where he has been pastor the last six years and his address was so eloquent and so touching the hearts of his hearers that many eyes were swimming in tears and sobs were heard in many directions.

He was present at the Sunday school services and there was a record attendance there, over 200 being present. Rev. Davis spoke to the teachers and pupils.

In the evening there was a union meeting of the Methodist, Baptist and Congregational churches at the First Congregational church. A special song service had been prepared. Rev. G. Phil Sheridan of the Congregational church read the scriptures, Rev. R. E. Cody of the Baptist church offered prayer and the sermon was by Rev. Davis.

Every seat in the edifice was taken and people stood in the aisles and sat in the church parlors. The large attendance was evidence of the hold Rev. Davis has on the hearts of Brainerd people. He took as his subject "The Fleeting and the Aiding."

Tonight a farewell reception will be tendered Rev. Davis and his estimable wife at the First Methodist church by the members and friends of the church, to which the public is cordially invited.

AKELEY SHUT OUT

Brainerd High School Plays Rings Around Them Saturday Afternoon to Tune of 26 to 0

Brainerd high school administered a drubbing to the crack football team from Akeley and shut them out Saturday afternoon to the tune of 26 to 0. Brainerd's line of defense was impregnable. Akeley's forward passes and 50 yard kicks brought no scores for they were checkmated at every point.

Day was the star of the game, his running and kicking netting most of the figures for Brainerd. There was a large attendance at the game. One of the features was the rooting by a chorus of lovely high school girls led by Cheer Leader Werner Hemstead.

SETTLERS FROM THE BLUE GRASS

A Bresler and Son Isaac Bresler Purchase the Richards Farm of 320 Acres

TO MAKE MODEL STOCK FARM

Will Build Additional Buildings, Taking Possession of the Farm April First

Crow Wing county has received as new residents A. Bresler and son Isaac Bresler of Owensboro, Kentucky, who have purchased the Richards farm of 320 acres in Long Lake township and will make of it a model stock farm.

At Owensboro, Kentucky, A. Bresler & Son had a large buggy, harness and implement business. They have disposed of this and have decided to make their home in Crow Wing county, taking possession of the Richards farm about April first.

This farm is known as one of the best pieces of land in the county and is also referred to as the farm with the biggest barn in the county. Mr. Bresler and family have spent their summers for the last five or six years at and near Brainerd and the country has so appealed to them as to induce them to leave the blue grass section and settle here.

"I think the country here admirably suited for stock raising," said Mr. Isaac Bresler. "We shall make it a model farm and will put in many improvements. We have many friends in Kentucky who will keep an eye on our progress and it will not be very long before we shall have some of our friends emigrating to this country. Land is very high near Owensboro and Crow Wing county offers more opportunities than do the older well settled sections of my state."

Mr. Bresler expressed himself delighted with the climate and conditions here. He left today for Owensboro, Ky., and will return to Brainerd again in the spring.

GAS, SOURNESS AND INDIGESTION VANISH

Just as Soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" Comes in Contact With the Stomach all Distress is Gone

"Really does" put bad stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that—just that—makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments into stubborn lumps, you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food and acid, head is dizzy and aches; breath foul; tongue coated; your insides filled with bile and indigestible waste, remember the moment Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous, and the joy is its harmlessness.

A large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin will give you a hundred dollars' worth of satisfaction or your druggist hands you your money back. It's worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or at night. It's the quickest, surest and most harmless stomach doctor in the world.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Delivered by Mrs. Henry I. Cohen at the Brainerd Musical Club

A hearty welcome to you all, on this beautiful October day. It is pleasant to meet again in an atmosphere of activity, after a period of relaxation, and to look forward to our fortnightly meetings and their delightful programs, to be enjoyed by our faithful club members and friends. It is more than pleasant to look forward to a year of growth in the knowledge of music, and also to anticipate the delightful hours, which our club's eldest daughter, our "Travel Class," will provide for us this year, as in the two years just past.

It is to be sincerely hoped, that after the club's encouraging start in civics, it may accomplish much along these lines in the coming year. It is good to be at work again. A period of relaxation does not always mean a cessation of thought, and many of our members, who have been privileged to live very close to nature, since the end of our last club year, have doubtless, under inspiring conditions, made plans for a successful year.

I had the pleasure of reading a book this summer, which created a desire in me, that the club do something practical for the community. The name of the book is "The Women of Tomorrow," by Wm. Hard. The last chapter, entitled "Mothers of the World" contains a description of the work of the famous "Chicago Women's Club." It enumerates the great accomplishments, begun and fostered by that club, which were after a time, turned over to the city of Chicago. One of these, the establishment of the juvenile court, is at the present time, of national importance.

No less eminent a woman than the late Sarah Platt Decker, ex-president of the General Federation of Women's clubs once said: "This club was so great an inspiration to me, during an early period of my growth, that I never retired without a copy of its year-book under my pillow." May we not also learn from this club? We cannot in any way compare Brainerd with Chicago, as the conditions and resources are so different, still there are many things to be accomplished here, which would render Brainerd more habitable and beautiful.

Can we not, as a club, follow the example of these courageous, energetic, persistent women, banded together, not only for cultural, but also for civic work, and accomplish more for Brainerd this year, than we did last? Can we not educate ourselves to make a more vigorous crusade against the fly? Can we not educate ourselves to think more of others and give the tired mother, waiting with her babe, at our depot, a more comfortable hour between trains, by having a few rocking chairs placed in our waiting room? Can we not educate ourselves, as well as our city fathers, to the need of gas in our kitchens, in order that, as Frances Willard once wittily remarked, "We might have a broiled steak on our table, without having a broiled lady at its head." For what is education? The colored orator describes it as follows: "Education, fellow citizens, is the grand pandemonium of civilization."

I will close with a quotation from this most interesting book: "They began, those women of the Chicago Woman's club with remembering that Goethe once said: 'Activity without insight is an evil.' Last spring they remembered something else that Goethe said. Their club president, retiring from office, comprehended the history of their club and thousands of other women's club, thus: 'Goethe, who started with the theory that the highest life was to be gained by self-culture, in later years concluded, that service was the way to happiness. So we have risen, by stepping stones, to higher things; through study, through interest in humanity, the supreme motive of this club has come to be service to humanity."
